Raul Lopez Retired this Month

Our dear friend and co-worker Raul Lopez, retired on May 20, 2021, after nearly 15 years of service to the City.

Joining the Police Department family in 2006, Raul has seen many changes during his career at the Police Department. After he shared that his previous career included painting vehicles, he happily donned the hazmat suit and painted on several occasions.

When Captain David Brooks first hired Raul in 2006. Raul explained his initial apprehension about working with the police saying, “I was not sure about working with police officers at first, but then my co-workers soon became my second family”.

On May 19th a luncheon was held at the police department in Raul’s honor. It was the first celebration since Covid shut down all gatherings last year. Raul’s family members were able join in the festivities.

Raul always had a smile on his face, and he will be missed. We wish him the best.

Annual L.B. Brown Festival

On Saturday May 22, 2021, members of the Bartow Police Department participated in the Annual L.B. Brown Festival. The annual event, which is normally a 3-day festival held in February, was scaled-down to one day due to Covid concerns.

The L.B. Brown House was designed and constructed in 1892 by a self-taught master carpenter, Lawrence Bernard Brown. Mr. Brown, born into slavery in 1856, had limited formal education. Lawrence Brown overcame those debilitating circumstances and became one of Polk County's most successful businessmen and community leaders.

Brown was named "A Great Floridian" by the Florida Department of State. The house, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, may be the only one of its kind in Florida, still in existence, that was built and owned by a former slave.

The L.B. Brown House, located at 470 South L.B. Brown Ave, is also one of the exhibits in the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C.
